

Remarks on global regularity for solutions to the incompressible Navier-Stokes equations

Isabelle Gallagher

gallagher@math.jussieu.fr

Institut de Mathématiques de Jussieu and Université Paris-Diderot (Paris 7)

Abstract

We review some recent results concerning the Cauchy problem for the three dimensional, homogeneous, incompressible Navier-Stokes equations. We show in particular that the set of initial data generating a global smooth solution is open and connected, and we discuss in what sense it is open for weak topology.

AMS Classification: 35Q30.